Please consult your tax advisor for the specific application of any items below relating to the preparation of your tax returns.

Income from U.S. Government Obligations

Some states do not tax their residents on income from a mutual fund that is earned from U.S. Government Obligations. The following table shows the percentage of total ordinary income dividends shown in Box 1 of your 2024 Tax Form that were attributable to interest earned from direct U.S. Government Obligations:

Fund Name	% of Ordinary Income Attributable to Direct U.S. Govt. Obligation (see Box 1)
NEOS S&P 500 High Income ETF	3.05%
NEOS Enhanced Inc Agg Bond ETF	0.62%
NEOS Enhanced Income 1-3 Month T-Bill ETF	97.03%
NEOS Bitcoin High Income ETF	100.00%
Mast Global Battery Recycling & Production ETF	2.86%
NEOS Enhanced Income 20 Year Treasury Bond ETF	100.00%

NEOS Nasdaq 100 High Income ETF	5.11%
NEOS Russell 2000 High Income ETF	1.27%

Depending on your state's personal income tax laws, you may be entitled to declare the above portion of your 2024 ordinary income dividends (Box 1) as tax-exempt income on your state personal income tax return. However, some states do not allow the "pass through" of this exempt-interest income unless the percentage earned from U.S. Government Obligations exceeds certain thresholds or unless other requirements are met. Please consult your tax adviser or state authorities if you have any questions regarding the percentage of income you can exclude when calculating your state income tax.
